Required texts:

Timothy Brook, Vermeer's Hat: The Seventeenth Century and the Dawn of the Global World

Jonathan Spence, The Death of Woman Wang

Natalie Zemon Davis, Women on the Margins: Three Seventeenth-Century Women

Alonso de Sandoval, Treatise on Slavery: Selections from De Instauranda Aethiopum Salute

Grades:

Grades will be determined on the basis of three essay-style exams (one of these is the final exam). Each of these three exams is worth twenty-five percent of the course grade (25 points each). They will each be part take-home and part in-class in format. There will also be three short papers, each of which is worth five percent of the course grade (5 points each). The remaining ten percent of the course grade will be based on several take-home activities. Notice that everyone begins the semester with the possibility of earning 100 points. Each less-than-perfect exam score reduces the possible final score; for instance, a 3 (instead of a perfect 5) on the first short exam reduces the final score possibility by 2 (to 98 instead of a 100).
Letter grades for the course will be determined according to this scale:

- 91-100 A
- 88-90 A-
- 85-87 B+
- 84-86 B
- 82-83 B-
- 77-81 C+
- 75-76 C
- 71-74 C-
- 65-69 D
- 0 – 64 F

Attendance is required in this course.

Absences that are both legitimate (illness, death in the family, religious observance, bona fide CU activities) and verified will not be counted, and three unverified absences will be allowed without penalty. But for every unexcused absence after three final grades will be reduced by one step (A to A-, A- to B+, and so forth). Come to class.

Accommodation for Disabilities

If you qualify for accommodations because of a disability, please submit your accommodation letter from Disability Services to your faculty member in a timely manner so that your needs can be addressed. Disability Services determines accommodations based on documented disabilities in the academic environment. Information on requesting accommodations is located on the Disability Services website. Contact Disability Services at 303-492-8671 or dsinfo@colorado.edu for further assistance. If you have a temporary medical condition or injury, see Temporary Medical Conditions under the Students tab on the Disability Services website.

Classroom Behavior

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. Those who fail to adhere to such behavioral standards may be subject to discipline. Professional courtesy and sensitivity are especially important with respect to individuals and topics dealing with race, color, national origin, sex, pregnancy, age, disability, creed, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, veteran status, political affiliation or political philosophy. Class rosters are provided to the instructor with the student's legal name. I will gladly honor your request to address you by an alternate name or gender pronoun. Please advise me of this preference early in the semester so that I may make appropriate changes to my records. For more information, see the policies on classroom behavior and the Student Code of Conduct.

Honor Code
All students enrolled in a University of Colorado Boulder course are responsible for knowing and adhering to the Honor Code. Violations of the policy may include: plagiarism, cheating, fabrication, lying, bribery, threat, unauthorized access to academic materials, clicker fraud, submitting the same or similar work in more than one course without permission from all course instructors involved, and aiding academic dishonesty. All incidents of academic misconduct will be reported to the Honor Code (honor@colorado.edu; 303-492-5550). Students who are found responsible for violating the academic integrity policy will be subject to nonacademic sanctions from the Honor Code as well as academic sanctions from the faculty member. Additional information regarding the Honor Code academic integrity policy can be found at the Honor Code Office website.

Sexual Misconduct, Discrimination, Harassment and/or Related Retaliation
The University of Colorado Boulder (CU Boulder) is committed to fostering a positive and welcoming learning, working, and living environment. CU Boulder will not tolerate acts of sexual misconduct (including sexual assault, exploitation, harassment, dating or domestic violence, and stalking), discrimination, and harassment by members of our community. Individuals who believe they have been subject to misconduct or retaliatory actions for reporting a concern should contact the Office of Institutional Equity and Compliance (OIEC) at 303-492-2127 or cureport@colorado.edu. Information about the OIEC, university policies, anonymous reporting, and the campus resources can be found on the OIEC website. Please know that faculty and instructors have a responsibility to inform OIEC when made aware of incidents of sexual misconduct, discrimination, harassment and/or related retaliation, to ensure that individuals impacted receive information about options for reporting and support resources.

Religious Holidays
Campus policy regarding religious observances requires that faculty make every effort to deal reasonably and fairly with all students who, because of religious obligations, have conflicts with scheduled exams, assignments or required attendance. In this class, please speak to Professor Ferry for any accommodation that you need. See the campus policy regarding religious observances for full details.
